

Biography

Brian Carlin

Brian Carlin is a senior Fellow of the Higher Education Academy and Fellow of The Academy of Medical Educators.

His current role as Academic Coordinator, involves the design and facilitation of the online MSc Clinical Education at the University of Edinburgh, Medical and Veterinary Medical school.

His main education and research interests are in Pre-hospital medicine and Sports medicine, and he has designed, developed and facilitated multiple programmes in these areas.

Brian developed the Exercise for Health programme through the Faculty of Sports & Exercise Medicine at the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland (RCSI) and the Standard Principles of Resuscitation & Trauma in Sports (SPoRTS) programme.

Brian is eager to increase the educational and research opportunities for those involved in the Pre-hospital setting, specifically, the development on online/blended-learning approaches that would function alongside the traditional taught programmes
